English Mood Academy

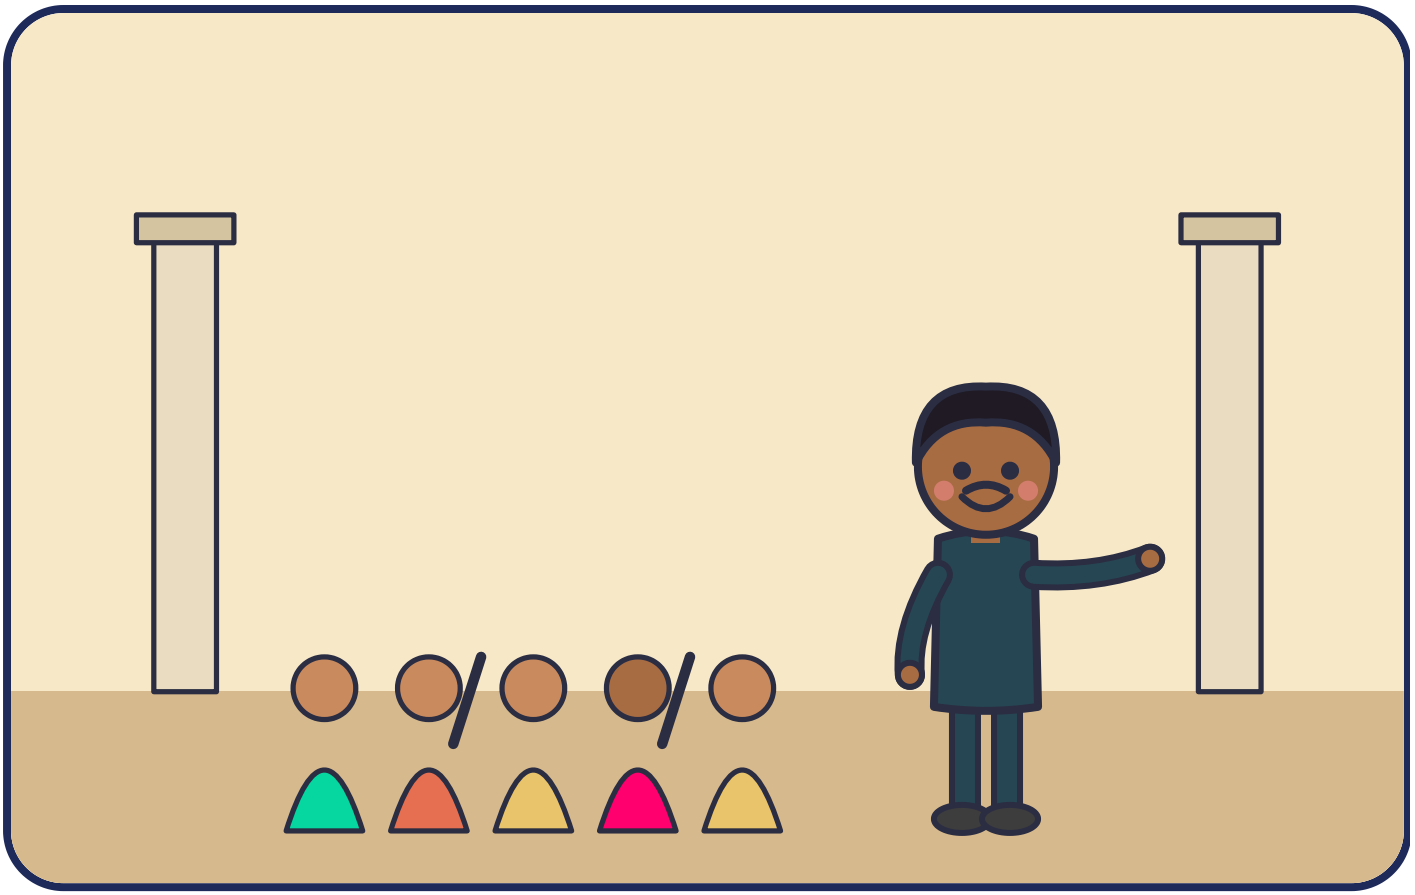

yellow = new words  red = Present Simple verbs

Salma lives in a busy neighborhood in Cairo. She loves her community and she helps her neighbors. That is good citizenship!

On Friday Salma's class visits the Egyptian museum. A big stone statue of a pharaoh stands at the door.

Inside, tall columns hold up the roof. The guide, Mr. Adel, smiles. "Many dynasties ruled Egypt for thousands of years," he says.

Mr. Adel shows them a small statue of a scribe. "Scribes write with reed brushes and ink," he says.

They wrote on papyrus, a plant that grows near the Nile. The Nile flows through Egypt to the sea.

Salma looks at the walls of an old tomb. She sees birds, eyes and snakes. These pictures are hieroglyphs!

Next, the class goes to the music room. There is a ney, an oud, a qanun, a rebaba and a violin.

"The ney is a wind instrument," Mr. Adel says. "The oud and the violin are string instruments."

Then a band plays a lively song. It is a mixture of old and new music. Everyone claps to the rhythm.

Children in colorful clothes dance folk dancing. Her little brother dances like a prince. "I love my world!" Salma says.

The End 🏛️

Learn about your history and be a good member of your community!
