English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = past simple verbs

Last summer, Nour visited Luxor with her school. She felt great pride when she saw the magnificent temples of her ancestors.

An archaeologist explained how experts restore old monuments. "We must preserve our heritage," she said. "It is our identity."

"Egypt was a crossroads for trade," she added. "Merchants came from far away, and a mighty civilization grew here."

Back in Cairo, Nour joined a group of volunteers. They planted saplings and visited elderly people in their community.

At first, Nour felt shy and isolated, but her friends supported her. Slowly, her confidence grew, and her optimism lit up every room.

One evening, a message appeared on her phone: "Give us money for a poor village!" The offer looked irresistible, but Nour was cautious.

She checked the page and found many misleading photos. It was a scam. The man behind it wanted to deceive kind people and exploit them.

Nour told her teacher. "Don't spread rumors," he said. "Use only reliable sources. Awareness is our best defense against misinformation."

The next day, Nour shared the truth with her classmates. Nobody became a victim, and the fake volunteer could not ruin their real group's reputation.

That night, Nour wrote in her diary: "Our past makes us proud, kindness makes us strong, and the truth keeps us safe."

The End 🏛️

Be proud of your heritage, kind to your community, and always check the truth.
