

Lina and the Lost Rabbit

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

Last Friday, Lina visited the animal center with her dad. Her dad was a vet. Lina wanted to keep a rabbit as a pet.

They reached the center early. Dad checked a little cat. "Every animal needs special care and attention," he said.

Then a sad boy came in. He was a rabbit owner.

"My rabbit ran away from its cage!" he cried.

Lina saw small footprints on the floor.

They followed the footprints to the park. A forest officer helped them. "Wild animals face many challenges in the city," he told them.

They walked past a big bin full of trash. Lina picked up the trash. "We must keep the park clean and safe," she said. That was an act of kindness!

Suddenly, Lina heard a jingling sound. It was the rabbit's little bell! The rabbit didn't move. It hid near a dark cave under the rocks.

Lina gave the rabbit a fresh carrot. The rabbit smelled it and hopped out. The forest officer smiled. "You protected it!"

Back at the center, Dad checked the rabbit's health. "It is healthy. Give it daily food, water and big spaces to move around."

The boy thanked Lina. "Did you like the adventure?" Dad asked. "Yes! I learned simple ways to care for animals," Lina said.

At home, Lina created a poster: "Love your pets!" She drew a rabbit, a monkey and a bear. It was the best day ever.
