

Omar and the Forest Guide

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

Last Friday, Omar visited a big forest with his uncle. His uncle was a forest guide.

First, they went to the river. Omar saw an elephant. It used its trunk to spray water. Omar used his sense of hearing to listen to the birds.

Then they walked near the trees. A monkey was climbing, and a zebra with black and white stripes ran fast. A giraffe with a spotted coat was eating leaves.

Omar found footprints on the ground. "Whose are they?" he asked. They followed them to a dark cave.

Inside the cave, there was a big brown bear! It was sleeping. Omar was a little scared, but his uncle smiled.

Near the cave, Omar heard a small sound. It was a little fox with a fluffy tail. Its leg was hurt.

His uncle called the forest officer. "Some people hunt animals here," said the officer. "We must protect them."

Then a vet came. She helped the fox and gave it medicine. "It is wild. It can't be a pet or live in a cage," she said.

Omar learned about the Red Sea Dugong. It is endangered. Many animals are in danger of disappearing.

At home, Omar took a shower and ate a healthy dinner. Then he made a poster to volunteer and collect trash from the forest.

"Animals are our friends," Omar said. "Let's keep their homes clean and safe!"

The End 🐾

Protect animals and keep their homes safe!

احمي الحيوانات وحافظ على بيوتها!
