

The School Garden Project: Chapters 2-4

English Mood Academy

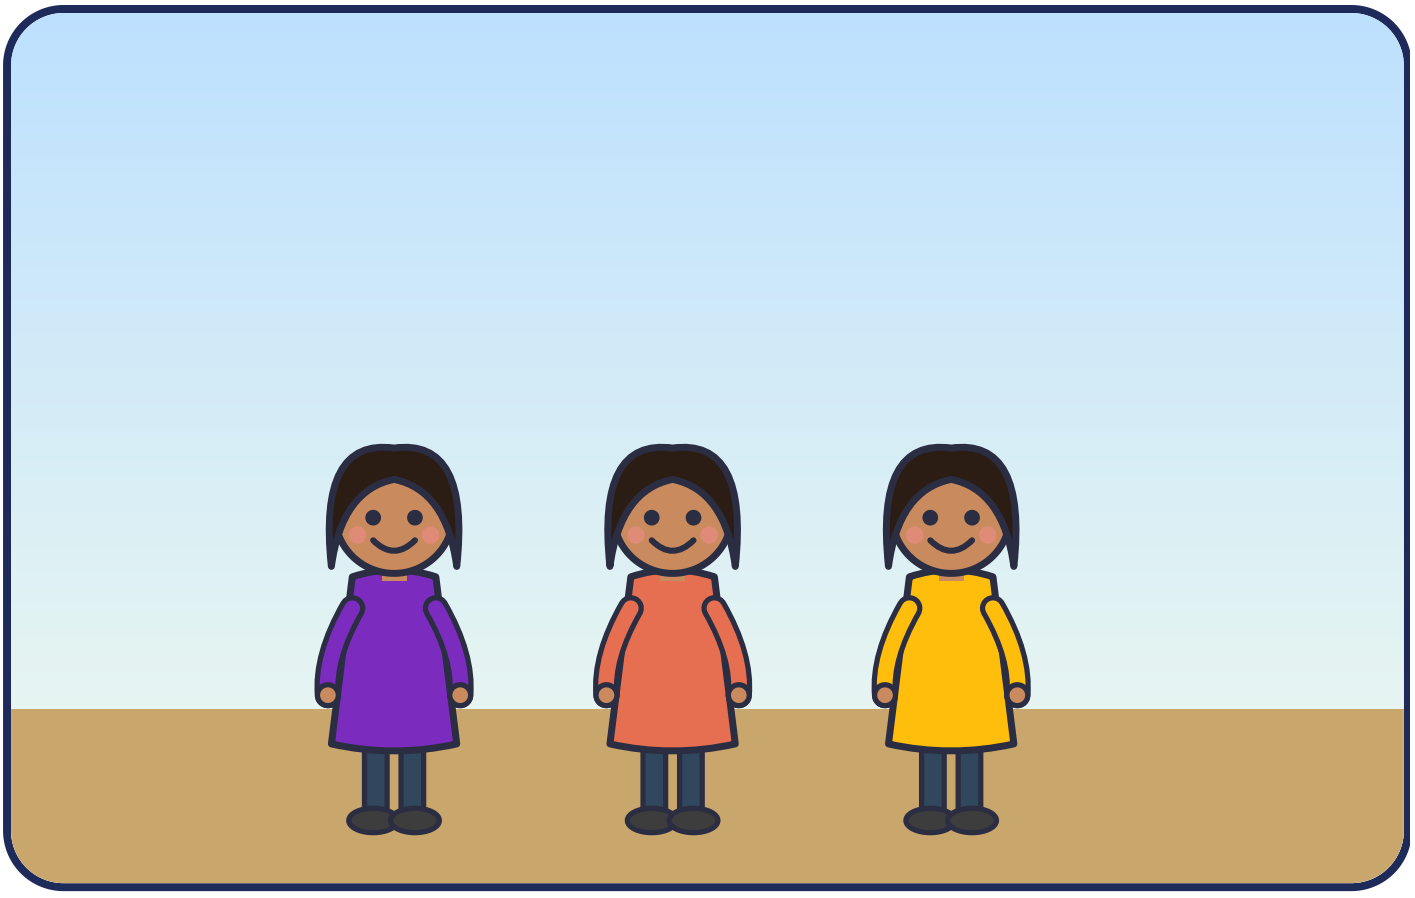

yellow = new words red = past verbs

Zeina took the initiative. She wrote a simple proposal to explain her idea: a garden behind the school cafeteria. "Our school deserves something beautiful," she said.

With great courage, Zeina spoke in front of the student council. Some students laughed, but Ms. Hoda, the biology teacher, thought Zeina's idea was smart.

Soon the garden became a shared project. Nancy was good with plants, Noha researched flowers, and Sarah was very organized. They showed respect for every talent.

Teamwork was the secret. Every student had a responsibility, and they worked in the garden during breaks. Their determination was strong.

Parents gave donations of tools and seeds. The team planted the seeds in the soil. But the hot climate was hard, and many small plants started to die.

Zeina was upset and frustrated. "Maybe we should quit," said one boy. "Every project has setbacks," Ms. Hoda said. "Let's be honest and find what went wrong."

They built a new watering system and chose plants that suit a hot climate instead of weak ones. Slowly, the garden began to recover. The team was motivated again.

Nobody wanted to blame others. Zeina was a kind leader, and each team was responsible for one part. They used natural fertilizers, not chemicals, because chemicals are harmful.

They looked for smart solutions and new methods to reduce trash. The garden was eco-friendly. Soon the students grew fresh lettuce!

Now flowers surround the old benches. The purpose of the garden came true: it brought the school together. Zeina knew that caring for nature is a global responsibility.

The End 🌱

With courage, teamwork and determination, a small idea can grow into a big success.

بالشجاعة والعمل الجماعي والإصرار، الفكرة الصغيرة ممكن تكبر وتبقى نجاح كبير.
