

Adam and the Busy Body Team

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

It was a sunny day. Adam was in a very good mood. He played football with his friends at school.

At lunch time, Adam opened his lunch box. There was rice, chicken and fruit. "Yummy food!" he said.

But Adam ate his lunch very quickly. He didn't chew the food with his teeth. He swallowed big pieces!

A few minutes later, his stomach hurt. Adam felt sick. "I have a stomachache," he told his teacher.

His teacher, Mr. Karim, smiled. He explained digestion: "Our body organs work as a team."

"First, food goes into your mouth. Your teeth chew it and your tongue moves it. Your saliva makes it soft."

"Then you swallow it, and it goes down through a long tube to your stomach. Your stomach breaks down the food."

"Then your body absorbs the good things in the food. They give you energy and keep you healthy and fit."

The next day, Adam chewed his food slowly. He drank water too. His stomach felt much better. Under the moon that night, he read a book about the body in his room!

The End 🍎

Eat slowly and chew your food well.

كُل ببطء وامضغ أكلك كويس.
