

Omar and the Big Nile Adventure

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

Last summer, Omar visited his grandpa's farm near The Nile River. He saw water weeds in a small pond and watched tiny insects on the water.

Grandpa pointed at the river. "Be careful! A crocodile lived there. Crocodiles hunt small fish." Omar stayed near the old tree in the cool shade.

A bird sat on a high branch, and a little snake hid near the trunk. Far away, a camel walked slowly on the sand.

At lunch, Grandma cooked Koshari. She used an old recipe with simple ingredients. "Good food gave me energy!" Omar said. He drank water instead of soda.

After lunch, Omar and his cousin Laila went swimming. "It makes your heart and muscles strong," Laila said. "It helps us stay fit and happy. It is good for our mental health too."

Laila wanted to be a pharmacist. "Our blood vessels carry oxygen to every cell. Fruit has vitamins. Good habits reduce stress," she explained.

Then there was a heat wave. It didn't rain for weeks, and the farm almost had a drought. Grandpa opened the canal for irrigation. "We can control the water," he said.

One night, a thunderstorm came. It was extreme weather! Omar heard about a wildfire that spread in a forest far away. The news showed emergencies and fast treatment for people.

In the morning, a little frog fell into the old well. Omar helped it, and the frog leapt out! "Every animal needs water to survive," Grandpa said. In Ancient Egypt, the flood brought rich soil.

On his last day, Grandma gave Omar a paper crown. "You weren't selfish. You shared and helped everyone!" Omar smiled. It was the best summer ever.

The End 🌊
