

Laila and the Thirsty Village

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

Laila lived in a small village near The Nile River. Her family's farm had rich soil and a little pond full of water weeds.

Last summer, extreme weather came. A long heat wave stopped the rain, and a terrible drought started.

The pond was dry. The plants had no energy, and even the camel and the insects looked tired.

One day, Laila saw smoke behind the hill. A wildfire began to spread across the dry grass!

Laila ran home. Her family helped the farmers control the fire. Everyone was brave in the emergencies.

"We need water to survive," Grandpa said. So the villagers dug a deep well in the shade of an old tree's branch.

They found cool water! Then they built a canal for irrigation, like the Ancient Egyptians did.

Weeks later, a thunderstorm came. There was no flood this time, because the canal carried the water to the fields.

A frog saw the full pond and started to leap with joy! Laila's mother cooked a healthy recipe full of vitamins for everyone.

They ate together and drank fresh water. "Good habits keep our heart and mental health strong," said the pharmacist.

Laila learned a big lesson: don't be selfish with water. Share it and save it!

The End 💧

Water is life. Save it and share it!

المية هي الحياة، حافظ عليها وشاركها!
