

Yousef and the Sugar Monster

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

Yousef loved sugar. He only wanted chips, candy and cakes. "I don't like carrots or peas," he said.

One morning, Yousef ate three cakes. Then he felt confused and anxious in class. He had a headache.

His teacher, Miss Hoda, smiled. "Sugar gives you energy, but you lose it quickly," she said.

"Too much sugar damages our teeth. Over a long time, it is bad for our heart, too," Miss Hoda explained.

At home, his sister Mona made lunch. She gave him orange sticks. "They are from a special garden," she said.

Yousef looked at them. They looked strange! He tried one. It was a carrot, and it tasted good!

Then Mona gave him green balls and a red sun fruit. They were peas and tomatoes. Yousef ate them all.

For a snack, Mona put raisins in plain yogurt. "Only one teaspoon of honey," she laughed.

The next day, Yousef drank pure water and ate bread and cheese. His energy lasted a long time.

In class, Yousef felt happy and his brain worked well. "Now I know! Healthy food tastes good!" he said.

The End 🥕
