

Omar and the Museum Rules

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = modal verbs

Omar's class is visiting the Egyptian Museum. "Remember," says Miss Salma, "you must stay together, and you mustn't touch the ancient things."

The first room is full of statues and sculptures made of granite. "Granite is very strong," says Miss Salma. "That's why these statues still survive today."

Next, Omar sees a long papyrus scroll. "Ancient Egyptians wrote on papyrus," says Miss Salma. "You shouldn't stand too close. The paper is very old."

In the next room there are pots and jars made of clay. "They used clay to make bricks too," Omar tells his friend Nour. "Just like our modern buildings!"

Nour points to a box. "Look! A mummy!" It is wrapped in white linen. "Linen is made from flax," says Miss Salma. "You must speak quietly in this room."

Then they see beautiful jewelry made of gold and colored stones. "It's unbelievable!" says Nour. "You mustn't use your camera flash here," says the guard.

Omar sees a small amulet shaped like a beetle. "People believed amulets could protect them," explains Miss Salma.

Last, they look at a model of a temple.

"Egyptian culture is fascinating," says Omar.

"We should visit Luxor one day!"

On the bus, Miss Salma asks, "What did we learn?" Omar smiles. "We should take care of our history, and we must protect it for the future!"

The End 🏺

We should take care of our history and protect it.

لازم نحافظ على تاريخنا ونحميه.
