

Joury and the Digital Detectives

English Mood Academy

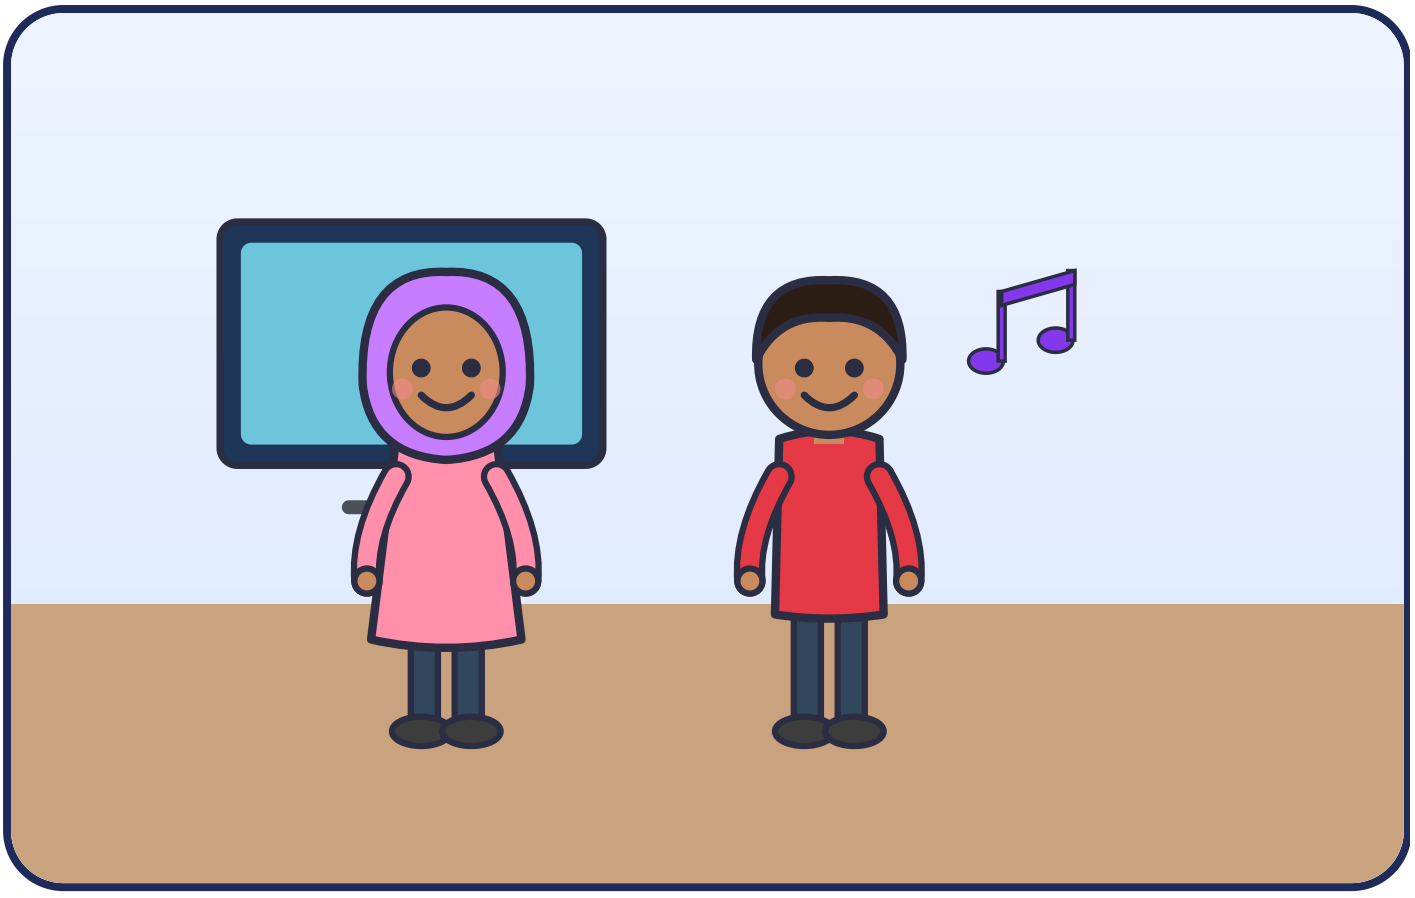

yellow = new words red = Present Simple verbs

Joury is a cheerful, curious girl. Every morning she follows the same routine: she wakes up, has breakfast and checks her assignments.

One day, Mr. Adam makes an exciting announcement: "Our school wants to launch a new website. Teams must collaborate to solve three mysteries!"

Joury, Salah and Mazen work as a team. Joury is a visual learner, so she draws charts. Salah is an auditory learner. He listens with his headphones.

Mazen is a kinesthetic learner. He loves hands-on activities. He opens the laptop and uses the keyboard and the mouse very fast.

The first of the challenges is a locked box. "The key is beneath something," Salah says. Joury finds it under the smartboard!

The second mystery is a video call. They turn on the webcam, the microphone and the speakers. Mazen doesn't hesitate. He speaks with courage.

The last mystery is about screen time. "Too much social media can affect your sleep," Joury explains. "We use night mode and read ebooks for a short time."

They communicate well and respect each other. Their cooperation and leadership help them find creative solutions with their digital devices.

Mr. Adam smiles. "You are successful and confident! Good study techniques and methods improve learning, and teamwork is your responsibility." The children always trust each other now.
