

Omar's Big Adventure: From Sinai to Siwa

English Mood Academy

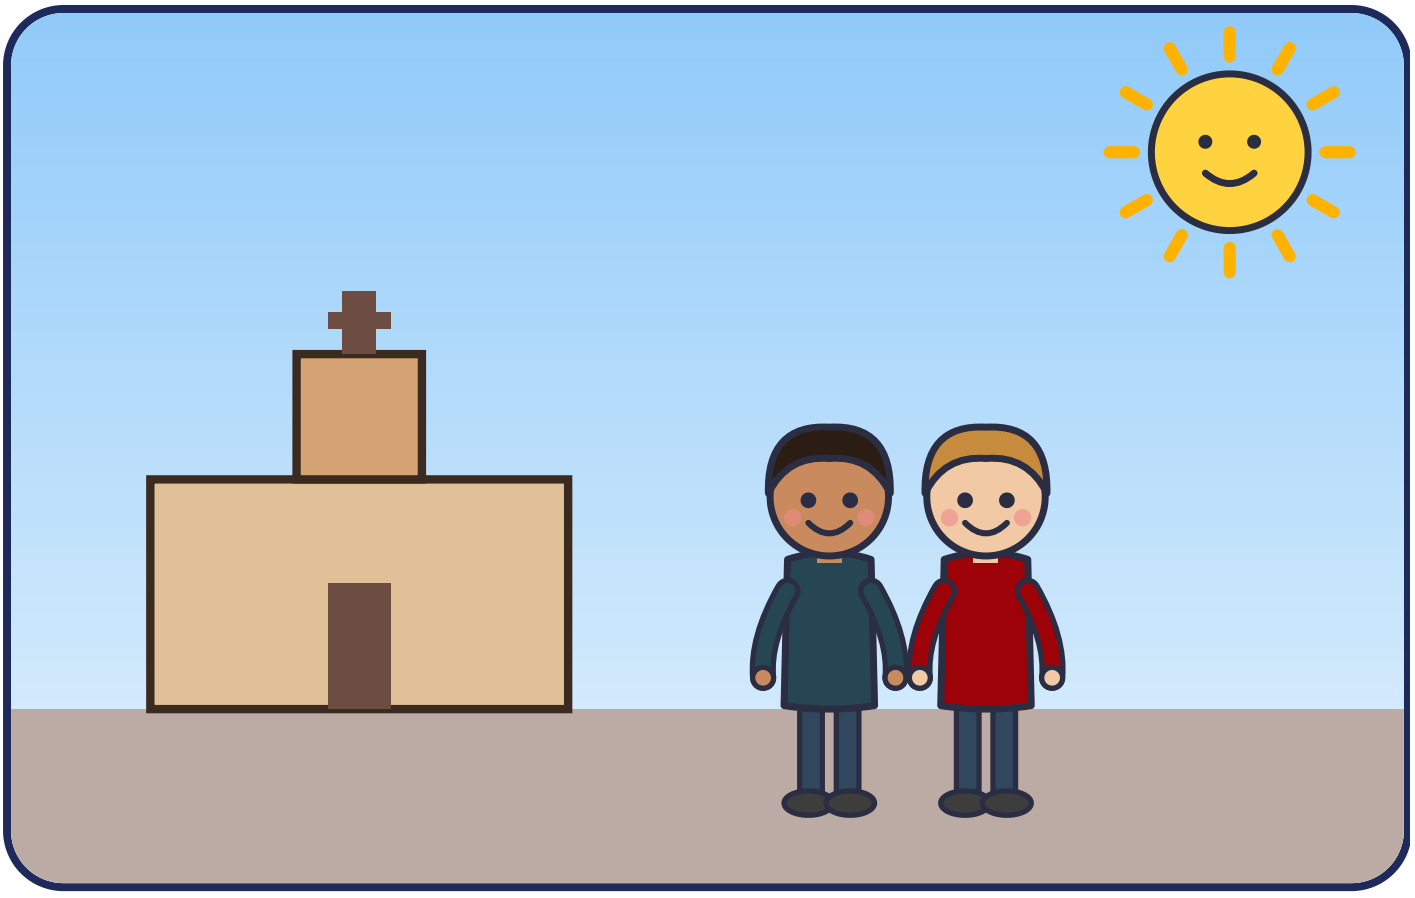

yellow = new words red = past verbs & prepositions of place

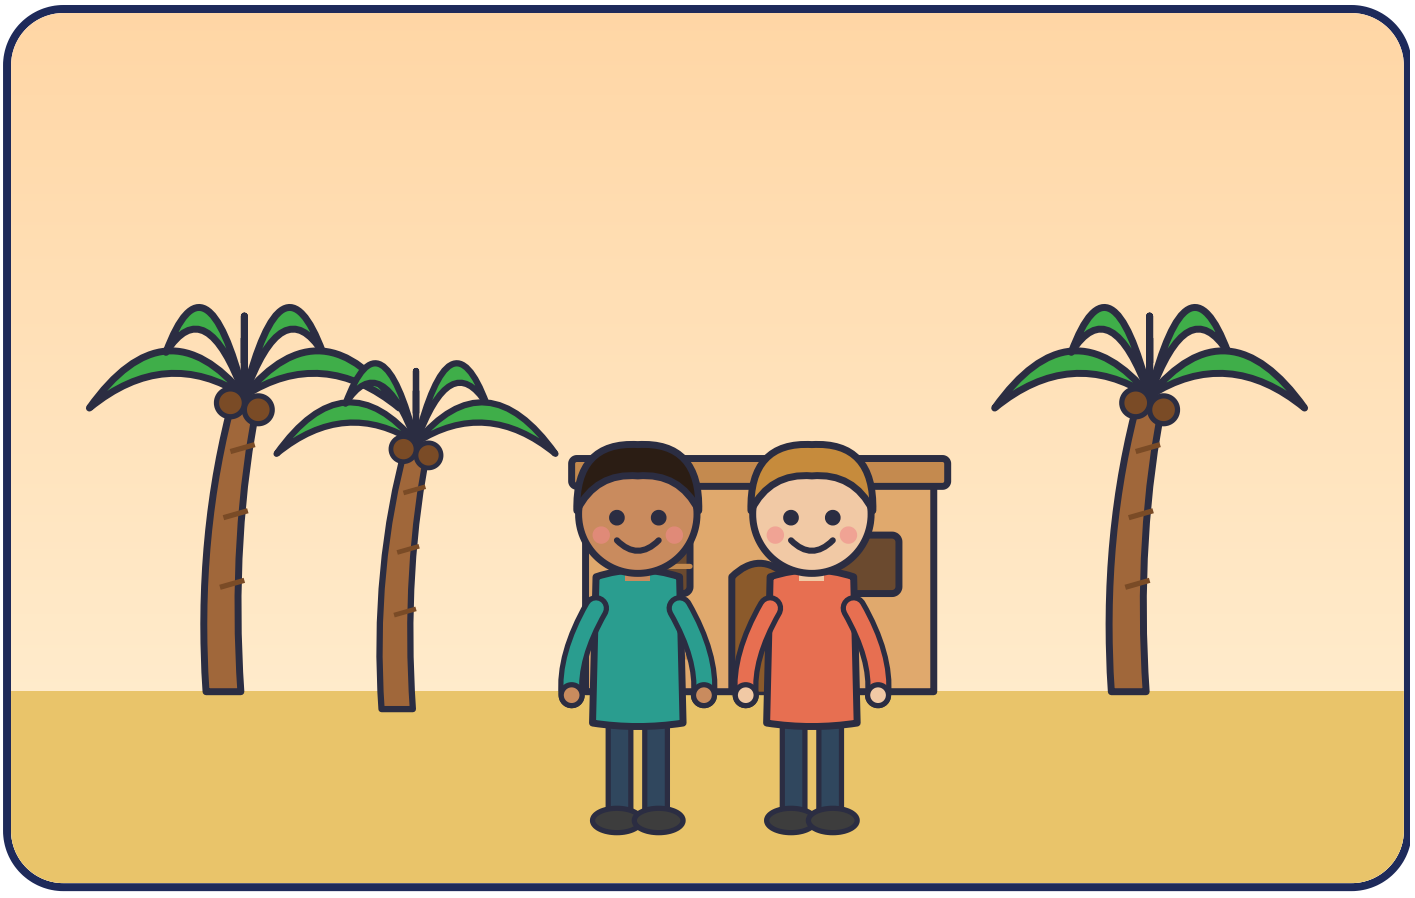

Last winter, Omar's cousin Tom came back to Egypt. Dad booked a trip to South Sinai and Siwa Oasis. "It's a big adventure!" Omar said.

First, they visited St. Catherine Mountain. It was very cold, so they wore warm clothes and woke up early.

They climbed the mountain with a kind tour guide. Along the way, they saw colorful rocks and small plants.

At the top, they visited the old monastery. Tom stood next to Omar and took a photo. "I love nature!" he said.

Then they went to Siwa. It is a popular oasis in the desert. There are many tall palm trees behind the old houses.

Omar and Tom swam in the Salt Lake. The water was so salty! Many tourists were in the water, too.

In the market, Tom bought sweet dates and a bottle of olive oil. It was a gift for his mum in London.

Back in Cairo, they went up the Cairo Tower and saw the Nile River. Next day, they explored Khan Al-Khalili Bazaar and the museum.

Before he left, Tom sent a postcard from the post office. It is between the library and the hospital. "Egypt has everything!" he said.

The End 🏔️
