

Omar and the Super Snack

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Present Simple verbs

Omar loves biscuits and sugar. Every morning he eats sweet cakes, but he never eats vegetables.

One day at school Omar has a headache. "I feel tired," he says. His teacher, Miss Hoda, smiles.

"Your body needs water," Miss Hoda says. "Water helps you stay hydrated. Blood carries water around your body."

"Water also helps keep your body temperature right. You need enough water every day, so carry a bottle!"

At home Omar's mom looks at his plate. "A healthy diet is a balance of foods," she says.

"bread, rice and pasta give you energy. fruit, eggs and cheese are good too. We cook with olive oil."

"Milk and butter are dairy foods. They contain minerals. Vegetables give you vitamins, fiber and nutrients."

On Saturday Omar goes to the shop. He reads the food packages. He looks at the serving, the calories and the amount of salt.

A chocolate brownie has lots of sugar. A cereal bar contains cereal. A dried fruit bar has natural sugar.

Omar chooses the dried fruit bar and a bottle of water. Now he feels great, and he takes a super snack to school every day!
