

Omar's Busy Saturday in the Community

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = prepositions of time (at/on/in)

Omar lives in a busy city. On Saturday, he wants a peaceful day with his family.

In the morning at 9 o'clock, they go to the bakery. Omar buys fresh bread. The shop smells cozy and warm.

At lunchtime, they eat at a restaurant. A friendly waiter brings pasta and juice. The place is full of happy people.

After lunch, Mum shops at the supermarket. Dad drinks coffee at a quiet coffee shop. Omar likes to hang out with his cousin there.

In the afternoon, the cousins go to the club to play football. Then they go on rides at the theme park!

On Sunday, Grandpa takes them to his village. They breathe fresh air and visit his cottage on a green hill.

Grandpa keeps animals in the barn. Omar feeds the chickens. The cottage is surrounded by a big field.

People gather in the main square. It is quieter than the city — no crowding here!

In the evening, they visit the New Administrative Capital. It is a smart city. The Iconic Tower is made of glass and steel.

Omar smiles. "The city is fun, but the village is peaceful. Let's come back on Friday!"
