

The School Garden Project: A New Challenge

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

Zeina was a new student at a preparatory school. She was always curious and liked to notice everything around her.

On her first day, she looked around the school playground. It was large but empty and gray. The ground was all concrete, and there were just a few old benches.

Students threw their trash on the ground, and no one seemed to care. "This place could be so much better," Zeina thought.

She had an idea, but she didn't know if anyone would listen to a new student. It was a real challenge for her confidence.

At lunch, she sat with her new friend Nancy, who was kind, supportive and always honest about how she felt.

"I don't like this area," Nancy said. "It's a little depressing." "What if we changed it?" Zeina asked. "What if we planted a garden?"

Nancy looked surprised. "Do you know how to grow plants?" "Not really," Zeina said, showing honesty. "But I want to learn. We could learn together."

The idea stayed in Zeina's mind all day. She imagined students eating lunch among flowers, plants and maybe even vegetables.

She imagined students being proud of the place. She knew the idea wasn't easy. It would need time, hard work, help and even money.

But something inside her said it was worth it. Maybe this garden could bring the school together and help everyone overcome the gray days.

The End 🌱
