

Omar's Smart Choice

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Units 1-3 grammar

Omar always gets up early. Last Friday, he invited his close friend Ali to a school match, but he had a big decision to make.

"I am studying for the test now," Omar said. "But I can play for one hour." He had two options: play or study.

Omar thought about both sides. He wanted to evaluate his choice before he decided.

"A smart choice is good for my goal," he said. "I never skip my revision." He did not skip his lessons.

At the match, Ali was careless. He ran fast and fell. It was a small injury, so the coach helped him.

"You can't run like that," the coach said. "Be responsible and avoid harmful moves. Every action has consequences."

Ali felt left out on the bench, but Omar sat with him. He was polite and kind, and he behaved well.

"Look! Our team is winning!" Omar shouted. Ali smiled. A good friend has a positive effect, never a negative one.

That evening, Omar studied carefully. He made a promise: "I usually study first, then I play."

Next week, on the school trip, Omar got full marks. Smart choices benefit us every day!
