

Laila's Helping Hand

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = past verbs

One sunny day, Laila was bored at home. She went to the park with her friend Hana. They were very excited!

Laila sat on the swing. She drew a picture of the trees with her pencil. She was happy and smiled at Hana.

Then Laila fell off the swing and hurt her knee. She felt sad and scared. Hana gave her a helping hand and helped her stand up.

Suddenly, they heard a sound. "Meow! Meow!" A little cat was in trouble. The girls followed the sound to an old fence.

The cat was stuck in a small hole in the fence. Laila was tired, but she wanted to help. A shy boy named Adam came to help, too.

Adam held the fence, and Laila carefully pulled the cat out. They worked as a team. Finally, the cat jumped free!

The happy cat licked their hands and said, "Meow!" The children laughed. Laila was not sad now. She felt better.

Hana said, "We saved the cat because we solved the problem together!" Adam was not shy now. He smiled at the girls' happy faces.

That night, Laila's mum asked, "How do you feel?" Laila said, "I feel proud! Today was better than a scary movie or a trip to the zoo!"

The End 🐱

When we give a helping hand and work as a team, we all feel happy and proud.

لما نساعد بعض ونشتغل كفريق، كلنا بنحس بالسعادة والفخر.
