

The Tempest: Act 1

English Mood Academy

yellow = new words red = Past Simple verbs

A great tempest hit a ship near a lonely island. Huge waves crashed over it. The sailors shouted, "We are going to sink!"

On the ship were Alonso, the King of Naples, his son Ferdinand, the King's brother, old Gonzalo and Antonio. Everybody jumped into the sea.

On the island, Miranda watched the storm. She cried to her father, "Please stop your magic! Save those poor people!"

Prospero took off his magic cloak. "Nobody is hurt," he said. "Listen, Miranda. Twelve years ago, I was the Duke of Milan."

"I loved my books more than my city. So my brother Antonio betrayed me. He wanted to rule Milan, and King Alonso helped him. They put us in an old boat."

"Kind Gonzalo gave us food, water and my books. We escaped and came to this island. Now my enemies are here too!"

Then Ariel, a spirit of the air, flew in. "The ship didn't sink. The waves threw the men on the beach," Ariel said. "Now give me my freedom!"

"Wait!" Prospero said. "A witch trapped you in a tree and I set you free. Obey me a little longer." Caliban, his angry servant, brought wood and complained.

Ariel sang a sweet song and Ferdinand followed it. He saw Miranda and they fell in love at first sight.

Prospero was happy, but he tested Ferdinand. He made him a prisoner. Is Prospero planning revenge? Or will there be no more shipwrecks and only love? Wait for Act 2!

The End 🌊

Forgiveness is stronger than revenge.

المسامحة أقوى من الانتقام.
